

Yates Baptist Church
Called Business Meeting
Wednesday, September 12, 2012

Minutes

Walt Pickett, Deacon Chair, called a special business meeting to order on September 12, 2012 at 6:15 p.m.

Mr. Pickett recognized Bill Reedy, Chair of the Personnel Committee, who made the following motion:

The Personnel Committee moves that the 2012 church budget be amended by $2,000 to fund a divinity student internship for the 2012-13 school year.

Mr. Reedy stated that funding for a student intern had not been included in the 2012 budget, as had been done in past years, due to cost control efforts, and that the money requested will fund the position for the fall semester only. Funding for the spring semester will be included the 2013 budget. Mr. Reedy stated that the recommendation to bring a student intern to Yates again this year was initiated by the church staff and endorsed by the Deacons, the Personnel Committee and the Finance Committee.

Mr. Reedy asked Pastor Don Gordon to give an update on the intern chosen. Pastor Gordon stated that Caitlin Jones had been selected. Ms. Jones, a 3rd year divinity student at Campbell University Divinity School, was highly recommended by Dr. Mike Cogdill and other professors at Campbell. Ms. Jones ranks at the top of her class, and is recognized as a top national scholar. She graduated from Samford University, and is a member of Lafayette Baptist Church in Fayetteville, N.C.

Mr. Pickett called for questions. There were none, and the motion passed unanimously. The meeting was adjourned at 6:20 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Nancy Wooters

Church Clerk
